8 x one hour
New Zealand

Based on the globally successful film of the same name, The Dead Lands series offers a new chapter, set in a time before time, in which warrior Waka Nuku Rau must find honour in a land ravaged by the supernatural. He's aided by a young woman, Mehe, who's determined to make sure he does. And for the spirits standing in Waka's way, he's got a message: Tell the dead I'm coming.

Killed in battle, bloodthirsty Waka is sent back to the world of the living to find redemption. But the world he returns to has changed and is now haunted by ghosts of the dead who can possess the living. It's a frightening, atmospheric world where the spiritual and supernatural are real, and where Machiavellian political games are a given. Together with Mehe they journey through the broken, terrifying lands, seeking a way to repair the world. A GFC Films production.
